A DIALOGUE FOR PEACE, HUMANITY AND JUSTICE

An Evening with Cardinal Charles Maung Bo and Cardinal Mykola Bychok

Pope Leo XIV reminds us that: "We are followers of Christ. Christ goes before us. The world needs his light. Humanity needs him as the bridge that can lead us to God and his love. Help us, one and all, to build bridges through dialogue and encounter, joining together as one people, always at peace."

PANELLISTS

His Eminence Cardinal Charles Maung Bo, SDB
Archbishop of Yangon, Myanmar

Myanmar's first and only Cardinal, Cardinal Bo is a strong voice for peace and reconciliation in his homeland. In a country facing ongoing instability, he continues to call for unity and the protection of human dignity. Deeply committed to education as a pathway to long-term stability, his leadership reflects the Church's mission to accompany those in need.

Cardinal Mykola Bychok CSsR
Bishop of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Sts Peter and Paul of Melbourne

Cardinal Bychok is a strong voice for unity, truth and human dignity in a changing world. As the youngest member of the College of Cardinals and a leader within the Ukrainian Greek-Catholic Church, he actively engages young people, fostering participation and belonging. Through pastoral care, advocacy and prayer for peace, his leadership reflects a Church that is both rooted and open.
